History Lesson by Martha Golightly Marshall ex dicta TESTIMONIOU 17/02/2015 12:19 GMT

Martha Magdalene was Christ's wife; Mary was a stupid clueless lazy jealous vain woman who was Martha's older sister who could not conceive when married to Jesus. In the Essene tradition, if the woman did not conceive a child in 3 years, the husband would take the younger sister to wife in order to perpetuate the Royal bloodline of Judah through children conceived. Martha was 82 days pregnant at the cross with twin boys; she was the one Jesus loved and kissed on the lips most often, the beloved of Jesus in secret for the sake of keeping safe the bloodline. Mary caused the crucifixion, she hated Martha and Jesus so jealous was she with no understanding of what had to be done to save the world. It was her accusations of adultery that brought about the crucifixion. She would spy on them using the younger brother Lazarus who caught them in the "act of adultery" and he reported them to the Pharisees who came and got Martha and dragged her before Jesus for his reaction to his wife in secret being brought before him for stoning, the accusation of adultery because the 3 years was not quite up with stupid Mary, but the crucifixion was looming on it's set time and the seed had to be planted within Marth's womb well before the Cross.....

Written history is the product and mostly conjecture of men. God hides His most precious possessions from all men. Martha returned to the Christ family home in Cornwall and gave birth to the boys on October 18th 33AD. Martha died after child birth, the promise to Her to go to be with Him since She did not want to live on the earth without Him. Martha dictated the book of John; Mary, repentant, wrote the words before Martha died. Mary the Mother of Jesus raised Joshuah in England and Mary the sister took James to Lyon and so the stories evolved about Mary and the son of Jesus...it was the sons of Martha and Jesus, Martha was the one who loved Him and understood Him and did all of the work...the scriptures about Mary choosing the better part while sitting at the feet of Jesus while Martha was busy with many things was a play on words...as the older sister she was given the choice of which part to play...she chose what she thought was the better part and that was to "do nothing"...her name Miriam means rebellious and much more that is not good....

Their reward was to finally be with each other and together they bring about the salvation of the world....the end of days began on December 18th 1922 when the British Astronomers reset the lunations of the moon count to zero, then began the reading of the Bible in Stone; the Great Pyramid; the Altar to the Lord in the midst of Egypt, each masonry layer a solar eclipse and each inch in height a lunation of the moon...the book that can only be read by the one whose Altar it is....The Christ returned BLGM...it is all about him...

The Bible itself is a Freemason construct and a trap for Lucifer; a tool only that BLGM uses to reveal the codes that only he can to a dumbed down devoured world of Christians who reject the Truth...
